INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING IN THE FORM – READ CAREFULLY!

You must choose six subjects, one from each group. Put an "H" in the box if you want a subject at Higher level, and "S" if you want it at Standard level. At least three and not more than four subjects must be studied at Higher level. You cannot choose more than six subjects.

The following courses are taught only at Standard level (SL):

English B, Norwegian B, French B, Language A Literature self-taught, Mathematical Studies.

The following courses are taught only at Higher level (HL):

Norwegian A Literature, English A Literature.

Students who want another Language A, must either pay for tuition themselves from a teacher with IB approval, or study that language as self-taught (SL only), with no tuition but guidance for the work to be done.

English B and French B require a solid base in the language, at least three years of previous studies.

Mathematical Studies SL is an alternative for those who prefer a practical approach to mathematics and qualifies for higher education in Norway on equal terms as “Matematikk S1” + “Matematikk S2”

Mathematics SL is designed to provide a sound mathematical basis for those who plan to pursue further studies in such fields as mathematics, chemistry, physics, economics and business administration. The course requires a basis in mathematics corresponding to “Matematikk 1T” in the Norwegian programme for specialization in general studies.

Mathematics HL is a more demanding course for students expected to include mathematics as a major component of their university studies.

If there are too few applicants for a course, it will not be available. Further notice about this will be given when admissions to the IB course have been decided.

Enclosures to be submitted with your application:

1. Certified copies of Diplomas and/or Certificates for secondary education
2. Signed copies of internal school reports and/or marksheets for current year's schooling
3. References. Attestations and reports from heads of school, teachers or school counsellors should be sent directly to Trondheim Katedralskole. All information will be treated as confidential.

All documentation must be formally certified.
